

The Greater New York Metropolitan Area Chapter is the local chapter of the Association of College and Research Libraries for the greater New York metropolitan area. Our chapter is divided into three geographic sections to address local needs: New York City, Long Island, and Westchester/Lower Hudson Valley.

Join today and support academic librarianship!

Membership Benefits

- ACRL/NY quarterly newsletter
- Blog with job postings
- Geographic section activities
- Discussion group membership
- Programs, workshops, and events
- Symposium planning
- Networking opportunities

Discussion Groups

- Distance Education
- Education/Curricular Materials
- Information Literacy/Instruction
- New Librarians
- Resource Sharing (combines former Collection Development, Electronic Resources, and Technical Services discussion groups)
- Special Collections and Archives
- User Experience (formerly Access Services)

The ACRL/NY Annual Symposium

Each fall, the organization hosts an annual symposium that focuses on current issues in librarianship. Speakers have included nationally-known librarians, writers, educators, and members of the business community.

The ACRL/NY Distinguished Service Memorial Award

In memory of those who have provided distinguished service to ACRL/NY, the fund recognizes deserving library/information science students interested in academic librarianship.

Learn more at <http://www.acrlny.org>