

ACRL/ NY

Association of College and Research Libraries

The Greater New York
Metropolitan Area Chapter

The Internet and search engines have had a profound influence on students in higher education today. How can the library best position itself to work within the Google environment while at the same time expanding the information environment to include more academic access to quality information? This is just one of the challenging questions that will be discussed at the 2005 ACRL/NY Symposium.

Speakers:

Steven Bell

Director, Paul J. Gutman Library
Philadelphia University

James Benson
